

IFRS/Audit Experts (m/f)

FEE (Fédération des Experts-comptables Européens – Federation of European Accountants) is the voice of the European accountancy profession. It represents a combined membership of more than 700.000 accountants, auditors, finance professionals, business and tax advisors in Europe.

We are enlarging our team to reinforce our technical, analytical, strategic and project management capacity in the field of financial and non-financial reporting as well as accounting and auditing regulatory affairs. There are 2 vacancies open.

You will be in charge of

- Providing technical and strategic support to FEE working groups and projects in the field of reporting, including: managing work programme and activities, guiding discussions, encouraging consensus, noting conclusions and implementing agreed actions
- Writing position papers, surveys, comment letters, briefings or facts sheets based on own research and considering input from FEE working groups and stakeholders
- Gathering intelligence in EU and international affairs relevant to FEE and its Members

You have

- Excellent research and analytical competences, with a proven ability to work autonomously, well organised, good at planning and problem solving
- Ideally 3–5 years of experience in an audit firm and relevant expertise in financial and non-financial reporting; knowledge or interest in other areas of work of the accountancy profession would be a plus
- Higher education (a professional qualification in one the EU Member States would be a plus)
- High ability to explain complex matters in simple words, good English writing skills as well as communication, networking and diplomatic skills
- Interest in EU affairs

We offer

- A challenging diversified job with opportunities to develop and work on cutting edge issues
- The potential to influence and shape the future of Europe and the European accountancy profession
- The chance to work and develop in a thriving international and motivated team at the heart of the Capital of the EU, Brussels
- Exceptional networking opportunities on the EU policy and professional scenes
- A competitive compensation package to be discussed on the basis of the candidates' experience, credentials and expectations.
